Cover design by Nicole Caputo
Founders’ Son
A Life of Abraham Lincoln
RICHARD BROOKHISER

“Beautifully written and choked with insights....
For Brookhiser, Lincoln's life was an encounter with a succession of fathers: his own, the Founding Fathers, and God the father.”
—Boston Globe

978-0-465-03294-5 • $27.99 / $34.99 (Can.) • 376 pp. • October 2014

Redeemer
The Life of Jimmy Carter
RANDALL BALMER

“Randall Balmer’s Redeemer deftly reveals modern America’s most misunderstood president.”
—Jon Butler, Yale University

978-0-465-02958-7 • $27.99 / $34.99 (Can.) • 304 pp. • May 2014

Stokely
A Life
PENIEL E. JOSEPH

“This is at its heart a book of ideas—ideas about power, freedom, and identity—and of a life, the author writes, that ‘took shape against the backdrop of a domestic war for America’s very soul.’”
—Boston Globe

978-0-465-01363-0 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 424 pp. • March 2014
The Half Has Never Been Told
Slavery and the Making of American Capitalism
EDWARD E. BAPTIST

“Wonderful.... Baptist provides meticulous, extensive, and comprehensive evidence that capitalism and the wealth it created was absolutely dependent on the forced labor of Africans and African-Americans.” —Nation

978-0-465-00296-2 • $35.00 / $43.99 (Can.) • 528 pp. • September 2014

The Cause of All Nations
An International History of the American Civil War
DON H. DOYLE

“This eye-opening book leaves no doubt that Abraham Lincoln was right when he said that ‘the whole family of man’ had a stake in the war’s outcome.” —James M. McPherson, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Battle Cry of Freedom

978-0-465-02967-9 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 400 pp. • December 2014

All Eyes are Upon Us
Race and Politics from Boston to Brooklyn
JASON SOKOL

“Jason Sokol’s account of the struggle for racial equality in the Northeast following World War II reveals a region that has, paradoxically, served the nation as a model of idealism, yet clashed fitfully, sometimes violently, over whether and how to translate those ideals into action.” —Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

978-0-465-02226-7 • $32.00 / $40.00 (Can.) • 416 pp. • December 2014
One Nation Under God
How Corporate America Invented Christian America
KEVIN M. KRUSE

From an award-winning historian, the story of how, in the middle of the twentieth century, corporate titans and evangelical activists rewrote history and created the pervasive myth that America was, is, and always will be a fundamentally Christian nation.

978-0-465-02431-5  •  $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.)  •  416 pp.  •  September 2014

To Make Men Free
A History of the Republican Party
HEATHER COX RICHARDSON

“The most comprehensive account of the GOP and its competing impulses.... An important contribution to understanding where we are today.”
—Los Angeles Times

978-0-465-04949-3  •  $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.)  •  448 pp.  •  April 2015

Between Two Worlds
How the English Became Americans
MALCOLM GASKILL

 “[Gaskill] takes two familiar histories that are often told separately, of England and Colonial America, and shows how inseparable they actually were. Between Two Worlds is not just beautifully written and grippingly told—it is also arrestingly original.” —Andrew Preston, author of Sword of the Spirit, Shield of Faith

978-0-465-01111-7  •  $35.00 / $43.99 (Can.)  •  512 pp.  •  November 2014
A Very Principled Boy
The Life of Duncan Lee, Red Spy and Cold Warrior
MARK A. BRADLEY

“A truly superb example of this genre.... [Bradley] exposes in riveting fashion how the Soviet spy network worked and how it flummoxed the FBI, which was very slow to catch on.”
—Foreign Affairs

The Law of the Land
A Grand Tour of our Constitutional Republic
AKHIL REED AMAR

Our preeminent scholar of constitutional law explores the most important legal debates in American history to show how our laws are rooted in our nation’s geography.

Universal Man
The Lives of John Maynard Keynes
RICHARD DAVENPORT-HINES

Noted biographer and historian Richard Davenport-Hines revives our understanding of John Maynard Keynes, the twentieth century’s most charismatic and revolutionary economist.
Fracture
Life and Culture in the West, 1918-1939
PHILIPP BLOM

From the critically-acclaimed author of The Vertigo Years, a major new history of the interwar period, the two decades of peace that gave birth to the political and cultural movements that would define the twentieth century.

978-0-465-02249-6 • $32.00 • 512 pp. • April 2015

The Devils’ Alliance
Hitler’s Pact with Stalin, 1939-1941
ROGER MOORHOUSE

“A highly enjoyable history written with verve and attention to detail.” —Financial Times

978-0-465-03075-0 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 432 pp. • October 2014

Potsdam
The End of World War II and the Remaking of Europe
MICHAEL NEIBERG

The definitive account of the 1945 Potsdam Conference: the historic summit where Truman, Stalin, and Churchill met to determine the fate of post-World War II Europe.

978-0-465-07525-6 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 368 pp. • May 2015
The Collapse
The Accidental Opening of the Berlin Wall
MARY ELISE SAROTTE

“This is easily the best book on the fall of the Berlin Wall. It reads like a thriller, it’s deeply researched and smoothly written. It will remind you how unlikely it was that the Soviet empire would collapse until one day it did.”
—Fareed Zakaria, GPS Book of the Week

978-0-465-06494-6 • $27.99 / $34.99 (Can.) • 320 pp. • October 2014

---

Ministers at War
Winston Churchill and His War Cabinet
JONATHAN SCHNEER

A masterful account revealing how Winston Churchill alternately battled with and relied on the team of advisors who helped him shape the way World War II was fought and won.

978-0-465-02791-0 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 352 pp. • April 2015

---

The Last Warrior
Andrew Marshall and the Shaping of Modern American Defense Strategy
ANDREW KREPINEVICH & BARRY WATTS

“In clear prose, the authors trace the career of this brilliant strategic thinker.... An elucidating intellectual history of an influential strategic sage that few outsiders have ever heard of.”
—Kirkus Reviews

978-0-465-03000-2 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 336 pp. • January 2015
NEW HARDCOVERS

The Fall of the Ottomans
The Great War in the Middle East
EUGENE ROGAN

“Thrilling, superb, and colorful, Eugene Rogan’s The Fall of the Ottomans is brilliant storytelling. Filled with flamboyant characters, impeccable scholarship, and revelatory analysis, [this book] is truly essential but also truly exciting reading.”

—Simon Sebag Montefiore, author of Jerusalem: The Biography

978-0-465-02307-3 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 448 pp. • March 2015

Heirs to Forgotten Kingdoms
Journeys Into the Disappearing Religions of the Middle East
GERARD RUSSELL

“A remarkable book.... The great virtue of Russell’s book is its courageous spirit of sympathy for an immense range of human experience.... An urgently needed corrective in our age of deepening religious divisions.”

—New York Review of Books

978-0-465-03056-9 • $28.99 / $36.00 (Can.) • 352 pp. • October 2014

Ring of Steel
Germany and Austria-Hungary in World War I
ALEXANDER WATSON

“In a year crowded with histories of World War I, Alexander Watson’s Ring of Steel makes a truly indispensable contribution.”—Wall Street Journal

978-0-465-01872-7 • $35.00 • 832 pp. • October 2014
Phantom Terror
Political Paranoia and the Creation of the Modern State, 1789-1848
ADAM ZAMOYSKI

“Splendidly provocative.... Phantom Terror is full of arresting details and sharp asides. Adam Zamoyski writes like a dancer at a court ball: gracious, patrician, masterful, sure-footed.”
—Spectator (UK)

Massacre
The Life and Death of the Paris Commune
JOHN MERRIMAN

“In Massacre, John Merriman combines two narrative tasks with considerable art: an overview of the tangled background and vivid close shots from the street.... In Mr. Merriman’s retelling, the Paris Commune is a reminder that the worst villainies are possible once you have dehumanized your opponent.”
—Economist

Luther’s Fortress
Martin Luther and His Reformation Under Siege
JAMES RESTON, JR.

From a celebrated religious scholar, a riveting account of the Catholic Church’s failed attempt to crush Martin Luther and his Reformation.
New HarcOvers

The Longest Afternoon
The 400 Men Who Decided the Battle of Waterloo
BRENDAN SIMMS

“Brendan Simms offers a concise, blow-by-blow narrative of how the outnumbered Hanoverian riflemen continuously beat back swarms of French infantry and so secured the British victory. A small masterpiece of scholarship, style, and storytelling.” —Victor Davis Hanson, author of Carnage and Culture

978-0-465-06482-3 • $24.99 • 208 pp. • February 2015

The Reckoning
Financial Accountability and the Rise and Fall of Nations
JACOB SOLL

“A dazzling book, rigorously researched and demonstrating an extraordinary scholarly range.” —Literary Review (UK)

978-0-465-03152-8 • $28.99 / $36.00 (Can.) • 312 pp. • April 2014

King John
And the Road to Magna Carta
STEPHEN CHURCH

From a renowned medieval historian comes a new biography of King John, the infamous English king whose reign led to the establishment of the Magna Carta and the birth of constitutional democracy.

978-0-465-09299-4 • $29.99 / $37.50 (Can.) • 320 pp. • April 2015
The Lost Art of Dress
The Women Who Once Made America Stylish
LINDA PRZYBYSZEWSKI

“A tribute to a time when style—and maybe even life—felt more straightforward, and however arbitrary, there were definitive answers.”
—Paris Review

Lesser Beasts
A Snout-to-Tail History of the Humble Pig
MARK ESSIG

A globe-trotting history of the domestic pig, showing how this humble and oft-maligned beast has helped humans survive and thrive from the Neolithic Period to the present day.

Confucius
And the World He Created
MICHAEL SCHUMAN

“This fascinating book rescues Confucius, his teaching, and his wisdom from the authoritarian embrace which has so distorted what we should learn from the Analects. Michael Schuman helps us to better understand Asia’s past, present, and indeed future.”
—Christopher Patten, former British Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Hong Kong
